Beverly Spates Receives Exceeding Expectations Award

Congratulations to Dietary Director Beverly Spates on being our first recipient of the Exceeding Expectations Award! Teammates and others voted and shared all kinds of positive comments like: "Beverly works with her staff to teach, demonstrate and encourage.

She caters to the needs of our residents by making special dishes on request. She exhibits a positive attitude and warm smile.

Beverly pays attention to details by taking the time to consider the appearance of special diets and fruited water. She is an encourager to all who come in contact with her, and exhibits compassion for others. She is fair and consistent, yet she believes in providing "constructive criticism" as needed. Residents and staff express enjoyment about eating her cooking. Her meatloaf is a favorite dish."

CHILDREN'S EASTER EGG HUNT

The Mom's Group of Chattanooga kids had a blast hunting for Easter eggs and winning prizes.

Residents filled the halls as they watched the little ones running around trying to fill up their Easter baskets. We had as much fun helping them find the eggs as they had hunting them.

Associate Recognition Program

A special thanks to Dietary Director Beverly Spates for all the hard work she does for our staff, residents and families. She is deserving of our Exceeding Expectations Award!

As our recipient, she will be awarded a check for $100, a congratulatory letter by Morning Pointe President and CEO, Greg A. Vital, and an Exceeding Expectations lapel pin.

Don't forget to nominate your caregivers and teammates when they "Exceed Expectations." Fill out the nomination card and place in the drop box near each nurse station.

FAMILY NIGHT

Residents and families enjoyed our Mardi Gras family night. With the smell of our Low Country Boil cooking in the kitchen and the sounds of New Orleans with Booker T. Scruggs and his jazz band, it really set the mood for a great night.

COMMUNITY VISIT

When Mitchell Jobe, a junior at Notre Dame, stopped by to volunteer, he and Jane Martin immediately bonded and spent the afternoon visiting in the courtyard. A bond that started before we heard of seven of Jane's nine children attended Notre Dame.

Resident Spotlight

EUCLID VOYLES

He has been a resident at Morning Pointe and The Lantern since 2010, shortly after his wife of 55 years, Elaine, passed away.

Before moving here, Euclid was a life-long resident of the Hiwassee Dam community near Murphy, North Carolina. He is a veteran of World War II, where he served in the U. S. Navy as an Ordnanceman. His assignments in that time included the U.S.S. South Dakota, the islands of Ponam and Ulithi, and at the war's end he was on the U.S.S. Intrepid. He did Shore Patrol on the Japanese mainland. While on the Intrepid he witnessed the Enola Gay take off on its mission to drop the atomic bomb on Hiroshima.

A few years ago he revisited the Intrepid, now docked as a floating museum in New York harbor.

He arrived back at Hiwassee Dam on Christmas Eve of 1945, but went to his grandmother's house in order to surprise his mother with his return on Christmas day.

After the war he attended refrigeration school in Birmingham, AL, before taking a job with TVA at South Holston Dam, where he met his life's companion, Elaine. They married in 1952. He became a journeyman pipefitter working out of Chattanooga local #43, and retired at 62. During that time he spent over 20 years working on TVA jobs, and was awarded by TVA for that service.

In addition to his pipefitter occupation, at the same time he also owned and managed a small motel, country grocery store and was the plumber on many of the vacation homes in what is now known as Bear Paw resort.

He is a Shriner, Freemason, Past Master of Unaka Lodge and former member of the Hiwassee Dam Volunteer Fire Department.

A tree that he planted as a youngster was selected as the Riches Dept. Store in Atlanta's annual Christmas tree. (This is considered the state Christmas tree of Georgia.) He and his family were invited to the lighting of the tree, where he met several dignitaries, including Atlanta mayor and former Ambassador to the United Nations, Andrew Young, who asked Euclid how much he had sold the tree to the Riches Department store for.

Euclid answered, smiling, "You may be the mayor of Atlanta but you will never know how much I was paid for that tree."

Euclid has two children who live in Chattanooga, Lori and Bruce. He has five grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

He has been known to introduce himself as "Euclid, but just call me 'Euc.' Think of Euclid with the lid off."

What a great group of girls from Chi Alpha residents hall at Covenant College. They spent time doing manicures and many one on one activities with our residents. We can't wait for them to come back for their next visit.
